THE FEMALE ROBINSON CRUSOE

IT happened in 1836. Captain George Nidever had been commissioned by the Mexican government to bring the Indian inhabitants on the island of San Nicolas to California. Life on the rugged coastal island had proved too difficult even for these hardy people, and the missions of California had offered to resettle them in California.

The ship was now loaded and the captain had given the order to set sail. Suddenly, a young Indian mother ran through the crowd on board and reached the captain's side.

"My child has been left behind on the island!" she cried. "You must go back for him!"

The captain was about to agree when one of the mates pointed to the darkening skies. "The storm will be here any moment!" he warned the captain. "Already the ship is tossing violently on its anchor. If you tarry any longer, we will all be wrecked!"

The captain nodded, sadly. There was not a moment to lose. The ship must sail at once.

But when the Indian woman learned that the ship would go off without her child, she rushed to the rail, leaped over it, and fought her way through buffeting waves to shore.

Against the advice and pleading of the mate, the captain waited four hours for the woman to return. Finally, he turned to a priest on board, and said: "We will have to leave her, Padre. Otherwise the storm will carry us on the rocks."

The priest and the captain promised each other that they would return for the woman when the storm had passed in a few weeks. But the captain's ship was later wrecked, and the poor woman was all but forgotten.

More than 15 years passed. Then, in the 1850's, a report reached Santa Barbara that hunters had spotted strange footprints on the supposedly deserted island.

Oldtimers remembered the story of the Indian woman, and searchers set out at once for the island.

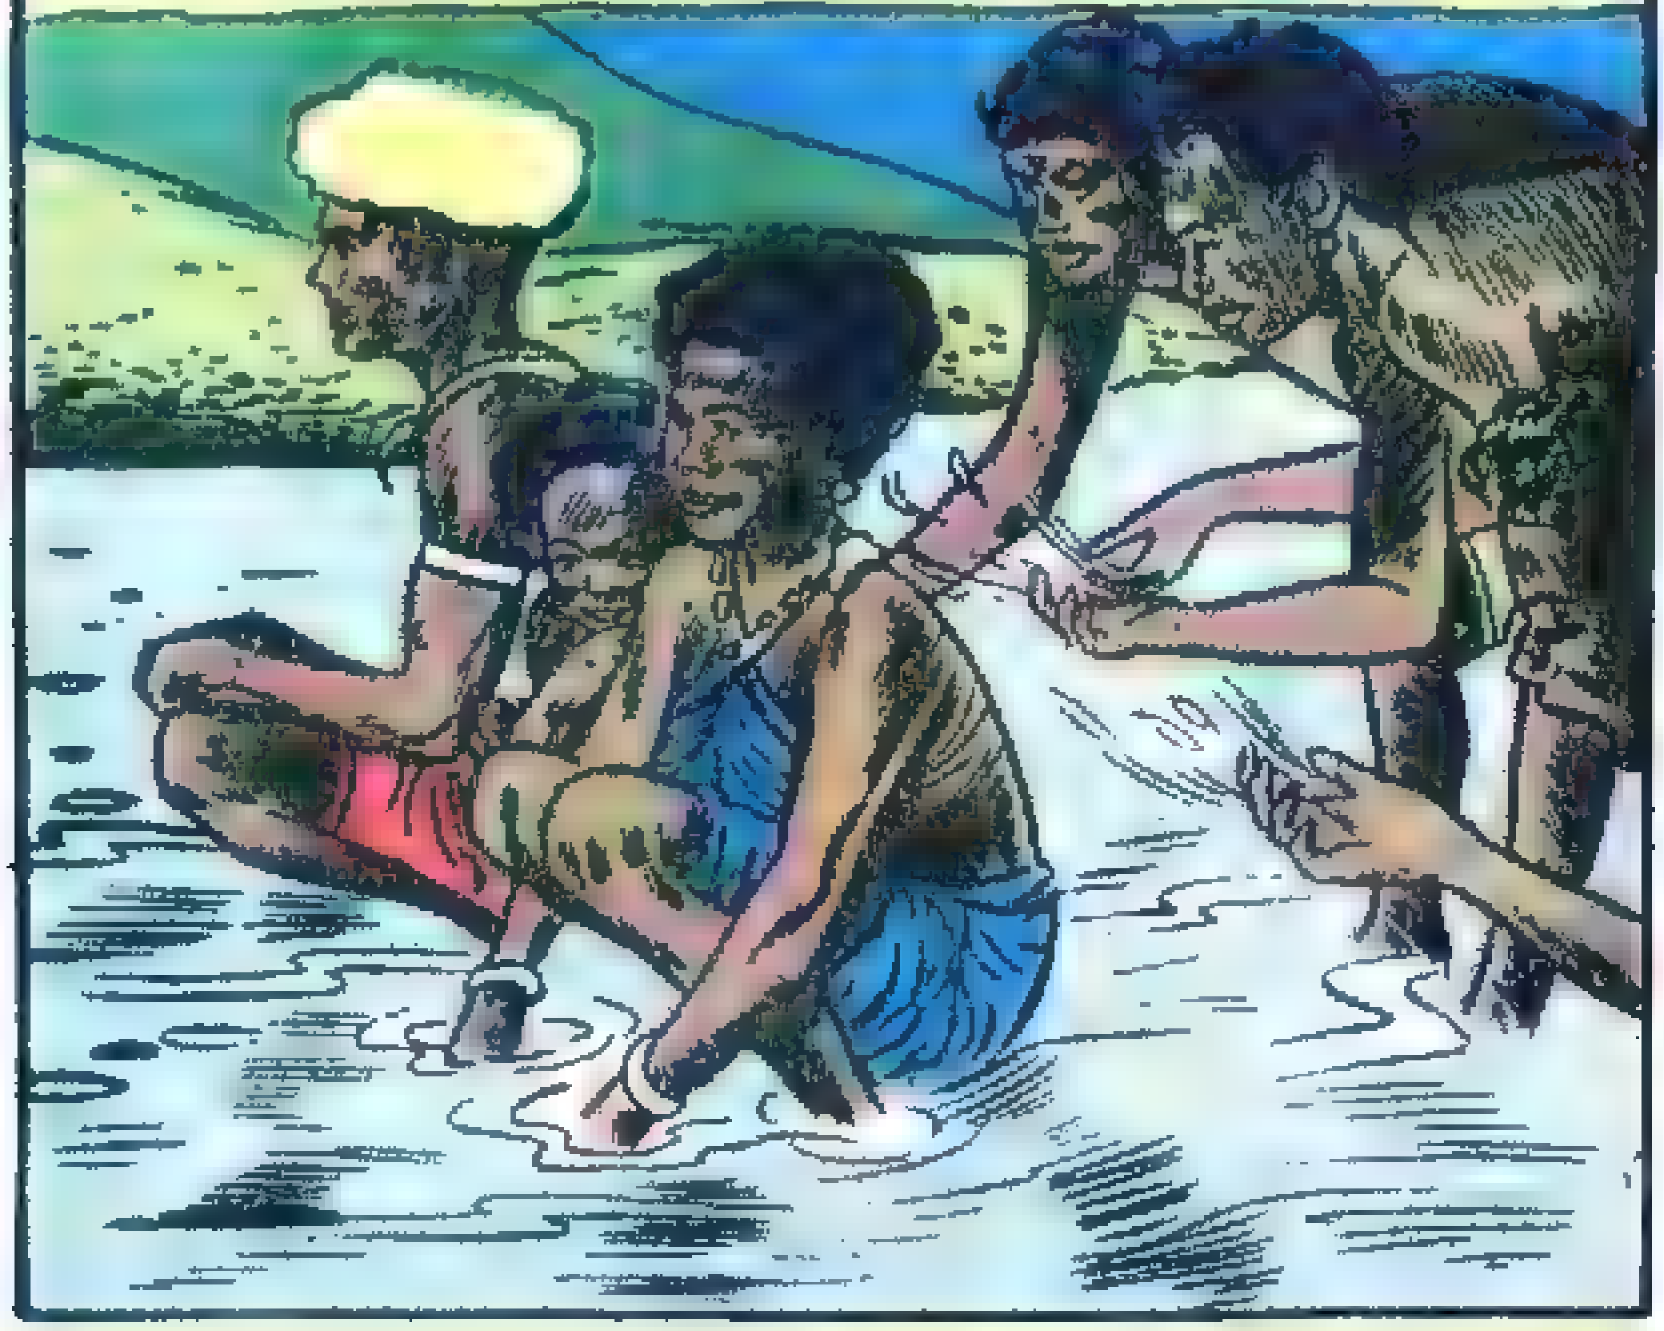
Two unsuccessful trips were made; but on the third trip, searchers stared at the sight of a strange figure on the beach. She wore a dress made from pelican and sea-gull feathers. Timidly, she came down the beach to meet her rescuers.

Although she spoke no word, there were tears in her eys. The searching party learned later that the reason she kept silent was because she had lost her voice. How did she live all through her 18 years on the island? Just like the legendary Robinson Crusoe, she has subsisted on herbs and roots. As for her son, she had not found him on the island, and it is likely that he had not been left behind after all.

"Mrs. Robinson Crusoe" was given a warm welcome when she arrived in Santa Barbara, where she was christened Juana Maria, and made an honorary citizen. And her quaint costume of birds' feathers was displayed in the Vatican as a symbol of mother love.

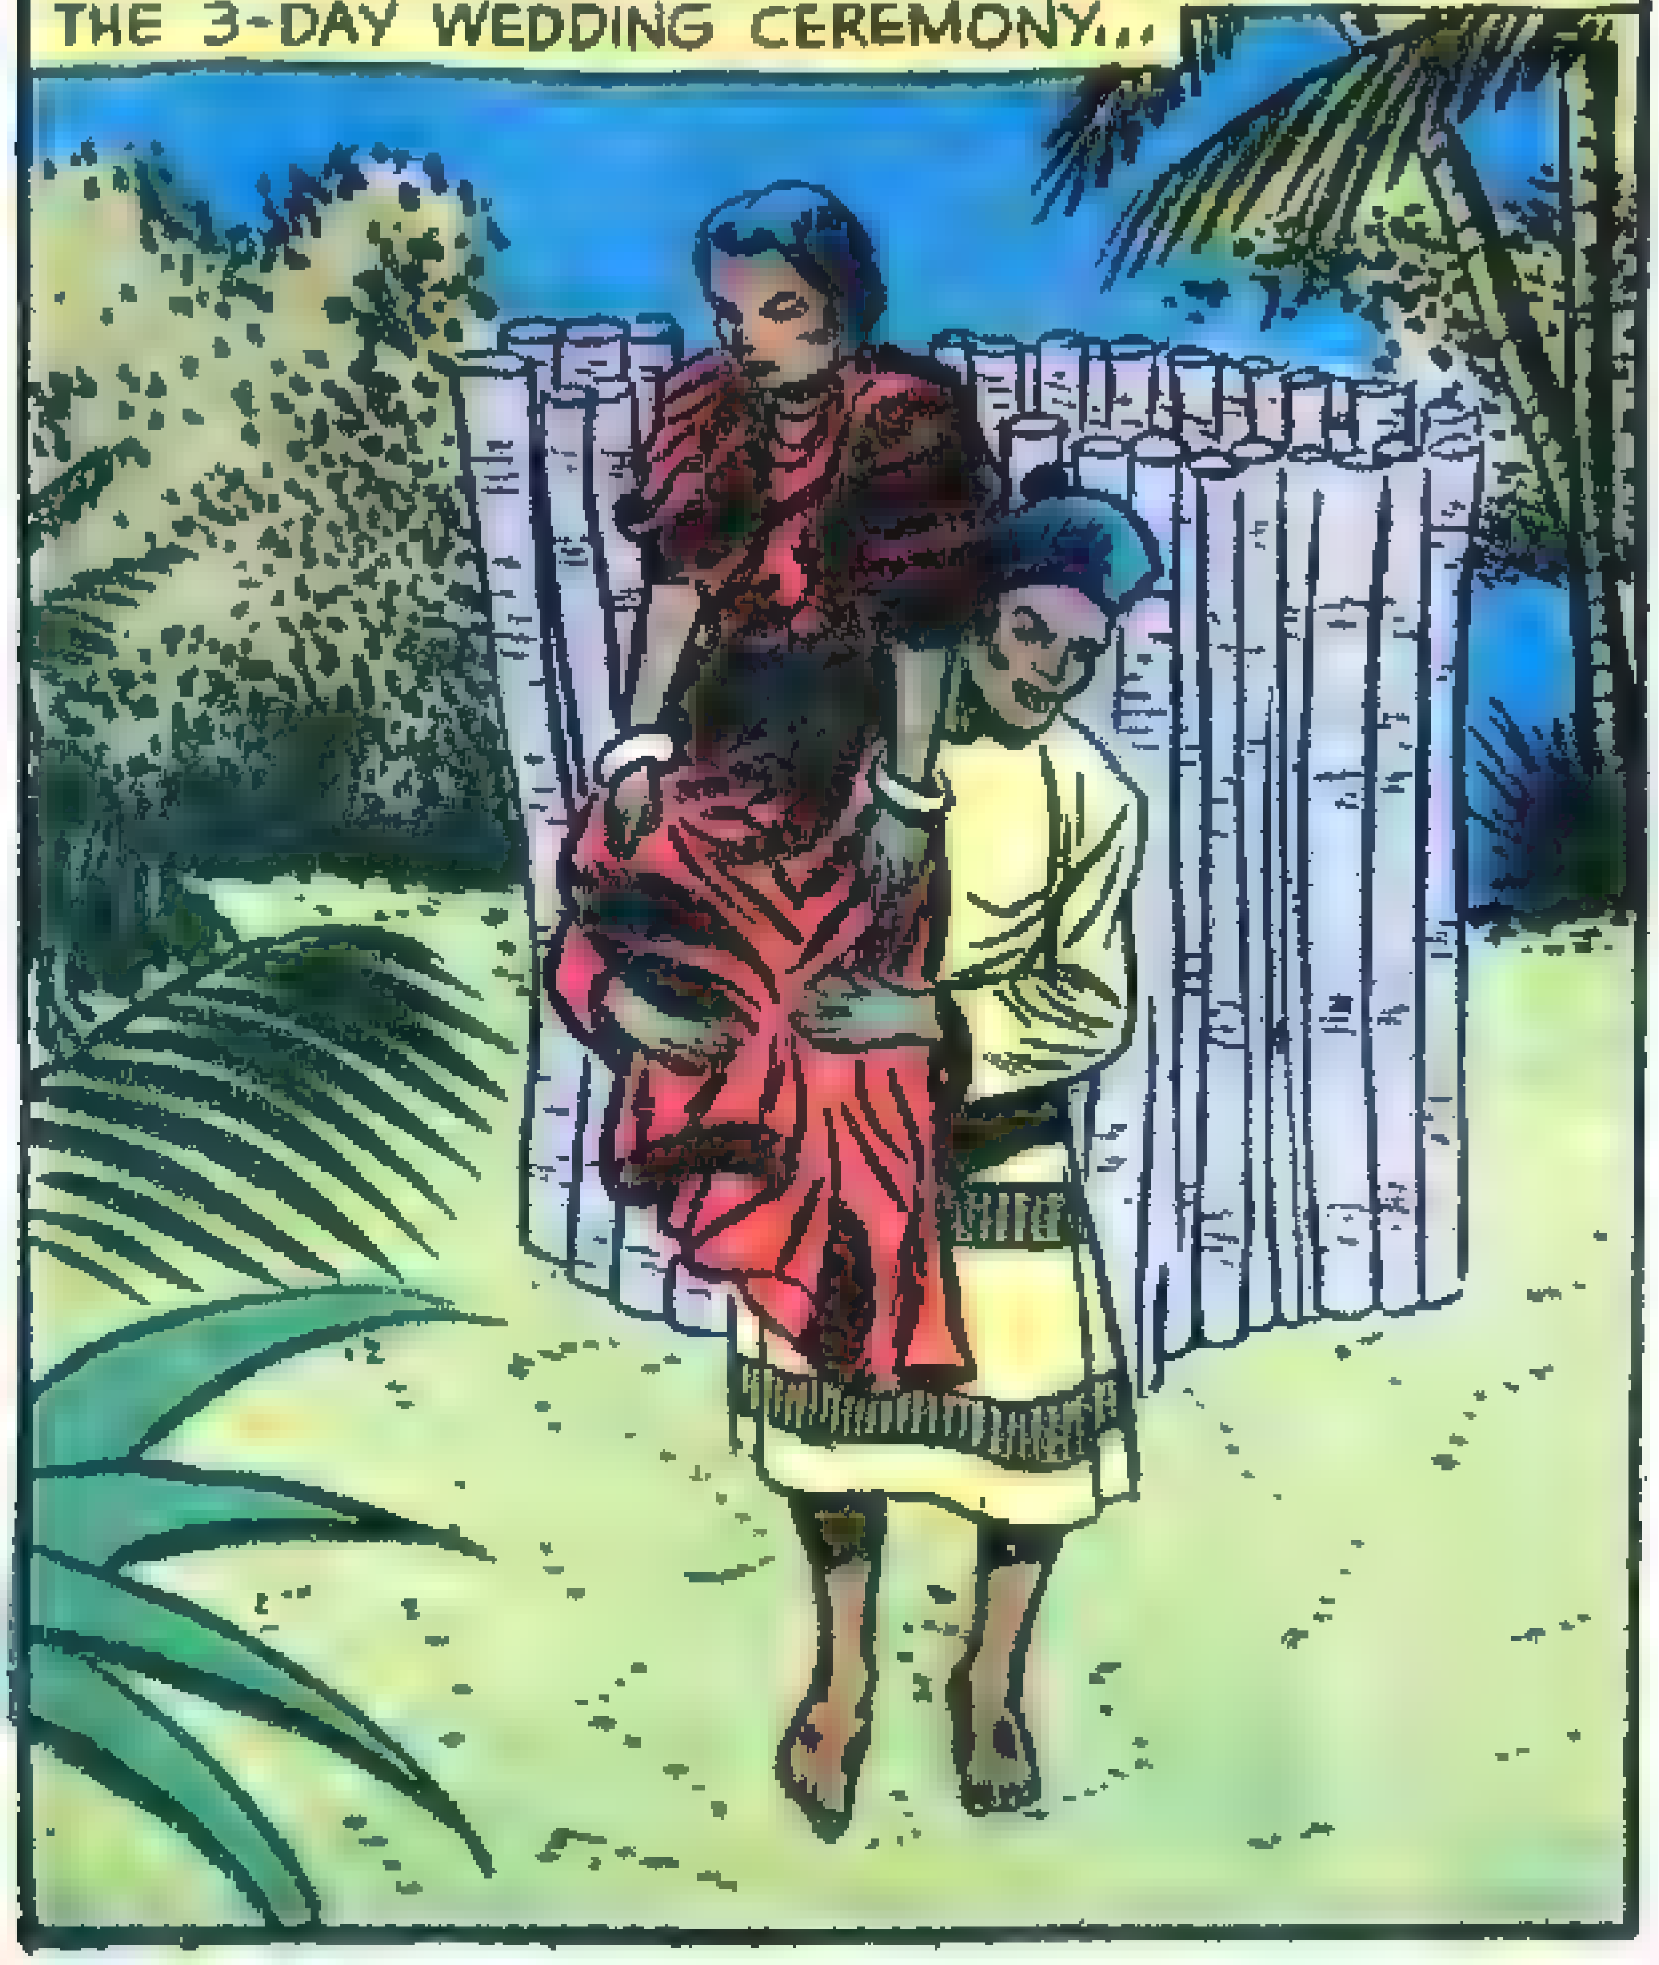
MARRIAGE A LA MODE!

A SOLOMON ISLANDS MARRIAGE CEREMONY CONSISTS OF THE GROOM (WHO DYES HIS HAIR BLOND FOR THE OCCASION) AND BRIDE SQUATTING IN A STREAM, A YOUNG BRIDESMAID BETWEEN THEM, AS THREE PRIESTESSES IN BACK OF THEM SCOOP WATER OVER THE TRIO, BESEECHING THE ANCESTRAL SPIRITS TO BESTOW HEALTH AND PROSPERITY UPON THE MARRIED PAIR...



DURING A SIKKIM, TIBET, WEDDING, THE BRIDE (WHO HAS YET TO LOOK UPON HER HUSBAND-TO-BE) KEEPS HER EYES CAST DOWNWARD WHILE THE GROOM CONTINUALLY BEAMS AND NODS HIS HEAD...

BECAUSE IT IS TABOO FOR A BUGI (MALAYSIA) GIRL'S FEET TO TOUCH THE GROUND DURING THE WEDDING CEREMONY, SHE IS CARRIED ON HER FATHER'S SHOULDER FOR THE ENTIRE COURSE OF THE 3-DAY WEDDING CEREMONY...



FOLLOWING AN EAST INDIAN JAVANESE MARRIAGE IT IS CUSTOMARY FOR THE WEDDING GUESTS TO CARRY BURNING TORCHES INTO THE BRIDAL ROOM AND SMOKE OUT ANY EVIL SPIRITS THAT MIGHT BE LURKING THERE...

LIFTING ONE OF THE IMMENSE CAGES, THE MIGHTY AMAZON HURLS HERSELF DOWN ATOP THE GROWLING ANIMALS . . .
THANK HERA—THEY'RE CAGED! BUT—THE GANG IS ESCAPING IN THE CONFUSION—SECURE IN THE BELIEF THAT MY HANDS ARE TIED!
WITH HER LASSO STILL INSIDE THE ANIMAL CAGE, AND A BIG DISTANCE FROM THE ESCAPING GANG, THE MIGHTY WONDER WOMAN TOSSES THE SECOND CAGE AT THEM WITH UNCANNY AIM . . .
SHE CAUGHT US, BOSS! YOUR SCHEME FLOPPED!
NO ONE CAN BEAT THE REAL WONDER WOMAN!
AS THE FLABBERGASTED GANG IS LED AWAY . . .

Read why DAISY is the RIGHT GUN

For EARLY TRAINING and FUN . . .

Since 1888 Daisy Air Rifles have used the same safer spring-type action—the safer short range—the safer low "factory limited" power! Today Daisys are approved for the marksmanship programs of National Rifle Association, the Boy Scouts of America. Today Daisys are used in schools, camps, air rifle clubs and homes to teach proper gun handling faster, more safely, more economically. Daisy is the accepted "first" gun.

Many Dads enjoy using the Daisy for inexpensive home target practice. Daisy shooting is also F-U-N for the whole family—from seven to seventy years old!

Buy your junior a Daisy and teach safety through skill. See Daisy Air Rifles on display today at your favorite hardware, sports goods or department store. Mail coupon now for instructive, free Daisy literature!

OTHER DAISY TRAINING ADVANTAGES

It's easy and fun to train juniors with a famous Daisy because: (1) the official NRA spring-type range is only 15 feet—shorter than your auto; a garage or 20′ room will do; (2) store cartons filled up with old magazines make a safe backstop; (3) a Daisy costs as little as $5.95; (4) ammunition costs only 5¢ for about 125 shots.

SHOOTIN' FUN
DAISY GUN BOOK
A Junior Air Rifle Club

GUN BOOK: Gun Section pictures America's most famous historical rifles and pistols each described by gun collector authority. Also explains how a Daisy works. Lists NRA Qualification Course for BB guns, shows NRA BB gun medals!

CLUB BROCHURE: Big 20-page Book tells how to organize, conduct a junior air rifle club; explains how parents, children, communities benefit from this popular new 15 foot spring-type air rifle marksmanship program. Write now!

IMPORTANT! Because Daisys are often confused with other type air rifles, we emphasize: Daisy is NOT a high-power pneumatic, gas, pellet or compressed air gun. It cannot be "pumped up" to increase power. It has always been a spring-action, short range, low power, low-priced BB gun—best for training boys and girls seven through fourteen.

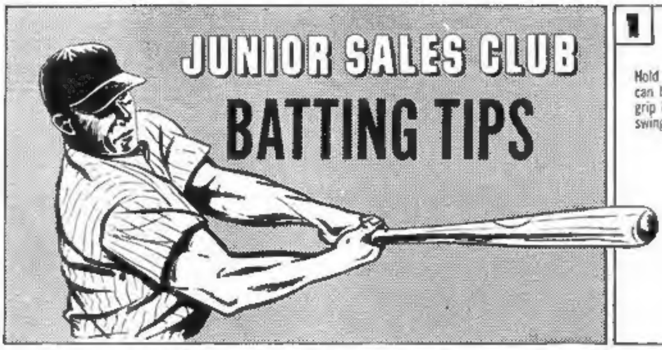
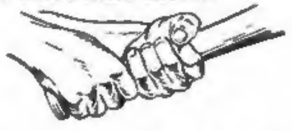
JUNIOR SALES CLUB BATTING TIPS

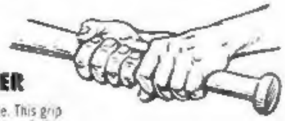


1 CORRECT GRIP FOR SWING HITTER



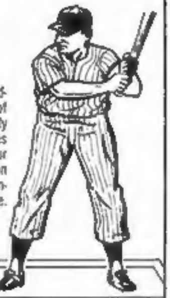
Hold your bat at the end. You can hit a longer ball with this grip because you have a fuller swing and follow-through.

CORRECT GRIP FOR CHOKE HITTER



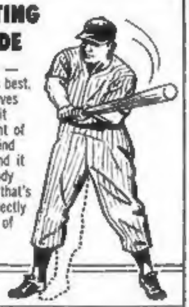
Hold the bat several inches up the handle. This grip doesn't drive the ball as far as the swing grip because the swing is not as full; gives more control, allows you to place hits better.

2 CORRECT BATTING STANCE



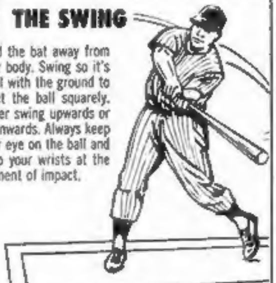
Place your rear foot midway between the sides of the batter's box, slightly behind home plate, toes facing the plate. Your front foot should be even with the plate, toes angled toward front of plate.

3 BATTING STRIDE



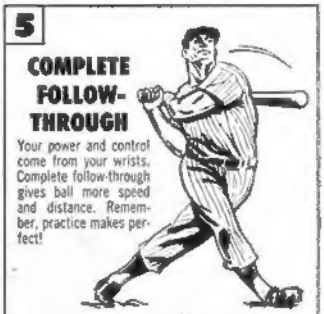
A short stride — about 6" — is best. The stride serves two purposes: it puts the weight of your body behind your swing, and it directs your body toward a ball that's not coming directly over the heart of the plate.

4 THE SWING



Hold the bat away from your body. Swing so it's level with the ground to meet the ball squarely. Never swing upwards or downwards. Always keep your eye on the ball and snap your wrists at the moment of impact.

5 COMPLETE FOLLOW-THROUGH



Your power and control come from your wrists. Complete follow-through gives ball more speed and distance. Remember, practice makes perfect!
